Question formation

Training

My walrus does giggle → Does my walrus giggle?

The ravens don't amuse the yak that doesn't smile. → Don't the ravens amuse the yak that doesn't smile?

The zebras by your yak do visit her quails. → Do the zebras by your yak visit her quails?

Generalization

My walrus that doesn't giggle does laugh. → ???

The rule must be: Move the first auxiliary

Doesn't my walrus that giggle does laugh?

Does my walrus that doesn't giggle laugh?

The rule must be: Move the main auxiliary

Learner with a linear bias

Learner with a hierarchical bias